space for success

Thuringian company Jena-Optronik, with 250 employees, is a true pioneers in the space industry.

Jena-Optronik, a subsidiary of Airbus Defense and Space, is a partner in demand globally, both for the world's biggest space agencies as well as for almost all the large aerospace system companies in Europe, Japan, USA and Canada. These leading aerospace system companies rely on the products made in Jena/Thuringia and use them in their most critical missions.

Jena-Optronik GmbH is DIN EN 9100:2018 certified.

Star Sensors

Cameras & camera systems

LiDAR

Space optics & electronics

Key to our successful projects

- World-wide activities with a broad customer base
- High quality awareness and well-qualified, motivated employees
- Strong future-proof technologic basis in an innovative environment
- Co-operations at location of Jena
- 30 years of experience with optical instruments
- Partner in international und national Projects

Awarded Products

- Northrop Grumman “Supplier Excellence” 2026
- „Supplier Excellence Award“ Maxar (former Space Systems Loral) 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020
- Lockheed Martin “High Five Award” 2018
- MELCO “Supplier of the Year" 2011 and 2014
- Mitsubishi Electric Corporation (MELCO) “Certificate of Appreciation“ 2009
- EADS Astrium "Master supplier 2007"
- Boeing "Supplier of the year 2006"