

ASTRO CL

A new member in the family

The ASTRO Constellation from Jena-Optronik is being designed to fit the needs of LEO constellation spacecraft.

The ASTRO Constellation has a medium accuracy performance, is compact, light weight, is made for high recurrent production rates and comes with a competitive price.

It is particularly designed for typical life times of small constellation spacecraft in LEO radiation environment.